32 pg PICTURE BOOK PAGINATION LAYOUT

End Paper	1- Title Page
2-	3-
4-	5-
6-	7-
8-	9-
10-	11-
12-	13-
14-	15-
16-	17-
18-	19-
20-	21-
22-	23-
24-	25-
26-	27-
28-	29-
30-	31-
32-	End Paper

from Julie Olson, www.JulieOlsonBooks.com

Classic Picture Book Structure

End paper	Title pg 1
Copyright	Dedication (Could possibly start the story here & introduce the main character & setting)
Main Character & Setting	Point of view, tone, time, voice, and introduce the problem IF you introduced the character already.
Introduce the Problem no later than here	If introduced the problem on page 5, then Deepening awareness of problem & Character on this spread
Character's first attempt to solve the problem	(Action)
Character's failure to solve the problem	(Reaction
Things get worse.
Character's second attempt to solve the problem	(Action)
Character's failure to solve the problem	(Reaction)
Things get worse.
Character's third attempt to solve the problem	(Action)
Character's failure to solve the problem	(Reaction)
Things get worse.
Main Character comes to a realization of how to solve the problem.	(Character's internal Climax)
Main Character acts to solve the problem.	(Story's outer Climax)
The solution works	(Resolution)
Final twist, joke, ah-ha, or gotcha moment	End Paper

By Julie Olson www.julieolsonbooks.com